

Mercer's Effluent - Process Wastewater Volumes

Mercer's process wastewater volumes per tonne of pulp have been stable over the past 4 years with an incremental improvement in 2020.

All of our mills are focused on reducing water usage through conservation initiatives and adopting new technologies.